

Sample Itinerary: BA

Note: We suggest a lot of activities so you can get the most fun out of your tour. You always have the alternative of doing your own thing, like relaxing at the hotel pool, watching a movie, or just walking around town.

Of course, the activities are different according the group's age and interest. If the players on your team are 8-17, for example, you will want to replace bar tours for movie theaters and a paragliding tour for a paintball day. This is just a sample itinerary and we will make a customized tour plan for you to meet your specific needs. You can get more or less activities depending on your plans and budget.

“Buenos Aires is often called the “Paris of South America,” for its soaring architecture and rich European heritage. But the city and its people, known as porteños, are a study in contrasts: European sensibilities and Latin American passion; wide boulevards and cobblestone alleys; steamy tango and romping rock and roll; sidewalk cafés and soccer fanatics. Nowhere in the world you will breath soccer in the air more than in Argentina.”

Day 1 - Arrival + Buenos Aires City Tour

You arrive to Buenos Aires International Airport. Your bilingual Tour Manager will welcome you and guide you to the bus that will be waiting for you.

Your Tour Manager will give you some tips about Argentina, which include how to exchange money, how to make international phone calls, how to get Internet access, etc.

The bus will take you to your hotel, where you can leave your luggage and take a shower.

Then we will take you on a Buenos Aires City Tour. Discover one of the most amazing cities in the world. Buenos Aires is a thoroughly modern city with more than 400 years of history. Visit Florida street, one of the most surprising pedestrian streets in South America. You don't want to miss Palermo Soho, the trendiest neighborhood in Argentina, where you will find tourists from all over the Globe; visit Puerto Madero, the preferred area for luxury offices and restaurants; and also check out San Isidro, the most exclusive neighborhood in Buenos Aires.

You will also get to see Argentina's historic buildings, the Casa Rosada (which means "Pink House" and is the President's office), the Obelisco (a huge tower with a lot of history), and some of the oldest, yet best maintained museums and theaters in the world.

Finish the day with a short visit to Recoleta, the neighborhood of choice for expats in Buenos Aires to have a good time and eat at the best restaurants.

Buenos Aires at night. No wonder why they call it "The Paris of South America"

Day 2 - Practice + Palermo Soho + Recoleta

Your team will have a practice in the morning. A complimentary transfer will be available for you and your Tour Manager will help you with any arrangements that you need.

In the afternoon you can have Tapas -a Spanish typical dish- in Palermo Soho, a place that is so cool you will never forget it.

At night you can go to Recoleta or Las Cañitas, two of the trendiest areas in South America. Here you will find world-class restaurants, unique bars, and popular clubs.

Day 3 - Rugby game + Boca Juniors

You will play your first game in the morning on one of the most incredible fields in Argentina. After you play rugby on a field like ours, you will never think of green the same way.

A professional referee and medical assistance will be available at all times. Our transfer will take you to the game and back to the hotel when you are finished.

We will prepare a barbecue for both teams so the players and coaches can interact with the locals and make friendships that will last forever.

In the afternoon we will take you to a Boca Juniors game. Having won the Intercontinental Cup -the major tournament in the world for clubs- three times (more than any other team in history), Boca Juniors is, without a doubt, one of the best soccer teams in the world.

Boca Juniors won 18 international tournaments and has more fans than all the other teams in Argentina combined.

Watching Boca Juniors live is an experience that is really hard to describe. Tens of thousands of people singing, jumping, and screaming for the most exciting 90 minutes of their week is just a start. When we say that you can feel the stadium vibrate, most people think that we are using an analogy. We aren't. It really vibrates. If you don't get goose bumps with all these people around you, please check your pulse.

Watching Boca Juniors is THE activity you don't want to miss for anything in the world.

THIS IS A PARK IN PALERMO. BUENOS AIRES IS ONE OF THE CITIES WITH MORE GREEN SPACES IN THE WORLD.

WATCHING A BOCA JUNIORS GAME LIVE WILL BE THE MOST UNBELIEVABLE EXPERIENCE OF YOUR LIFE.

Day 4 - Ranch Day

After a game day and watching Boca Juniors, it is a good time to relax.

One-and-a-half hours outside Buenos Aires you will find the perfect place to rest and have a good time. All you hear is the birds; all you see around is trees and horses; all you feel is the breeze in your face. Estancia Santa Susana is paradise if you want the best barbecue of your life (we guarantee it), to relax at the pool, and ride horses in the afternoon.

Enjoy one of Argentina's most popular traditions and you will soon understand why Argentines are always smiling.

THE RANCH DAY IS THE PERFECT OPPORTUNITY TO EXPERIENCE TYPICAL ARGENTINEAN TRADITIONS: ASADOS (BARBECUES) AND HORSEBACK RIDING.

Day 5 - Practice Day + Open afternoon

Your team will have a practice in the morning. A complimentary transfer will be available for you and your Tour Manager will help you with any arrangements that you need.

In the afternoon, you are open to do whatever you want. We have many suggestions for you:

Costanera: have lunch in one of the hottest areas of Buenos Aires, next to the Rio de la Plata river.

Hipodromo: exciting horse races, one of Buenos Aires oldest traditions.

Puerto Madero: luxury lunch and Argentina's best casino.

Tren de la Costa / Yachting: see multi-million dollar celebrity houses next to the river and spend your afternoon relaxing on a boat in the river.

We will also suggest incredible and inexpensive restaurants so you have the best dinner in your life for the price you can eat at McDonalds back home.

Day 6 - Game + Tigre

You will play your second game in the morning on one of the most incredible fields in Argentina. As usual, professional referees, and medical assistance are available during game days.

For lunch you will have Argentinean-style pasta, a timeless tradition in Buenos Aires.

In the afternoon, we suggest the Tigre activity. Take a boat tour to the world's widest river. Sail to an island and enjoy a great steak. In the afternoon you can get more excitement at South America's biggest roller coaster theme park.

This night, your dinner is on us. Decide what kind of restaurant you want to go to and we will get you there.

If the players on your team are over 18 years old, for this night we suggest the Buenos Aires Night Tour. We will take you to the most glamorous bars and clubs in Buenos Aires where people of your age hang out. With music that will get you dancing even if you are not the dancing kind,

“ Argentina heart boasts bustling streets, grand avenues, old-time cafes and stylish restaurants. For the traveler, Buenos Aires delivers. Wander the cobbled streets, marveling at faded architectural glories and colorfully painted metal houses; talk fútbol (soccer) in an atmospheric old cafe; then tuck into a famously delicious Argentine steak to power a long night's partying. Fútbol (soccer) is a national obsession, and witnessing this passion at a live game is part of the Buenos Aires experience. ” endless nights, and fun people around you, this will be a night you will never forget.

Day 7 - Open Day

After so many rugby games, practices, and activities you will want to take a day for yourself. You can ask your Tour Manager for recommendations. In Buenos Aires there are too many things to do. It is impossible to get bored.

You can go to Calle Florida to do some shopping and watch street artists dancing, juggling, acting, singing, and painting. You can go to Lagos de Palermo, a high-end park where there are over 1,500 different types of flowers and wildlife. You can go to Peru Beach to do some wall-climbing and chill out on the beach. We guarantee that there is so much to do that you will wish you had more time.

"LOS LAGOS DE PALERMO" IS THE PERFECT PLACE TO HANG OUT WITH FRIENDS AND ENJOY A DAY OUTDOORS.

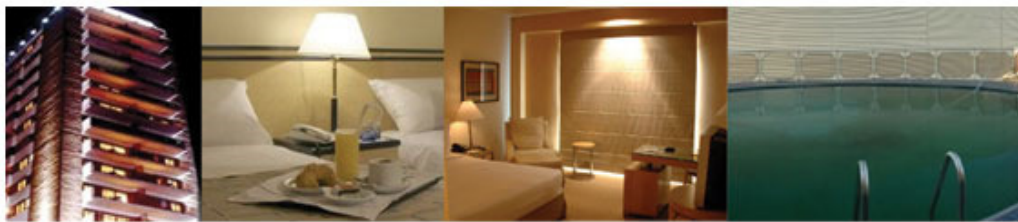

Day 8 - Relax + Return flight

After breakfast, you have a couple of hours that you can fill in bowling, watching a movie, visiting parts of Buenos Aires that you didn't get to see before, going to the zoo, or visiting a museum. No problem, we will make it happen.

Later on that day, our transfer will take you to the airport and help you get checked-in. The trip will have reached its end but you will have lived an experience that you and your friends will never forget.
